

8. Next week, we'll meet at our regular time, 3:30 P.M.
9. Our guest speaker is Pat Mora, a Mexican American poet whose work emphasizes harmony between cultures.
10. Have you read her poem "Bribe"?

Review H Identifying Verbal Phrases and Appositive Phrases

Find the verbal phrases and appositive phrases in the following sentences. Identify each phrase as a participial phrase, a gerund phrase, an infinitive phrase, or an appositive phrase.

- EXAMPLE
1. Automobiles have been partly responsible for drastically changing life in the twentieth century.
 1. drastically changing life in the twentieth century—gerund phrase

1. Developing the automobile was actually the creative work of many people, but Henry Ford deservedly receives much credit.
2. Ford's company, using an assembly line and interchangeable parts, first produced the Model T in 1909.
3. Many people in the early 1900s wanted to buy cars because of their low prices and novelty.
4. By giving people an alternative to mass transit, automobiles did much to change the social and business scene of the United States.
5. No longer dependent on streetcars and trains, the first motorists used automobiles for going on recreational and family trips.
6. Clearly overjoyed with their vehicles, many Americans regarded automobiles as necessities by the 1920s.
7. One writer, a famous historian, noted that the automobile industry led to such new businesses as gas stations, repair garages, tire companies, and motels.
8. To get a clear idea of changes in automobile designs over the years, look at the picture to the right.
9. The photo shows Henry Ford, looking contented and proud, in his first car.
10. What are some of the main differences between Ford's car, one of the most advanced vehicles of its day, and modern cars?

HELP

A sentence in Review H may contain more than one verbal or appositive phrase.

