

Review B: Clauses and Their Functions, p. 92

EXERCISE A

1. At the dance I met Michelle, a student whose hometown is Paris. ^{ADV}
2. When Michelle first arrived, her English was somewhat stilted. ^{ADV}
3. Since we met, her speech has improved. ^{ADV}
4. Michelle understands that it is important to practice English. ^N
5. Sometimes, though, what she says surprises me. ^N
6. Because she is athletic, Michelle loves sports jargon. ^{ADV}
7. She readily learns the new terms that we teach her. ^{ADV}
8. Baseball, which is my favorite game, confuses her. ^{ADV}
9. However, she "talks" soccer as if she were a professional player. ^{ADV}

10. What Michelle wants to become is a sports announcer. ^N

EXERCISE B

11. I laughed when my father brought home a papillon. ^{ADV}
12. Don't you think that a cat or a dog would make a better pet? ^{N-DO}
13. That is what I asked upon hearing of his strange purchase. ^{N-PN}
14. Imagine my surprise at the time when I learned the truth. ^I
15. Papillon, which is French for "butterfly," is also the name of a breed of dog. ^{ADV}
16. What distinguishes the papillon from other toy spaniels is its unusual, butterflylike ears. ^{N-S}
17. A breed that is becoming popular in the United States, the papillon is an intelligent dog. ^{ADV}
18. If one can judge from our Papou, the breed is also very friendly. ^{ADV}
19. Our Papou, for example, readily responds to whoever takes note of him. ^{N-OP}
20. More than a show dog, he gives whoever loves him plenty of affection in return. ^{N-IO}