

Short Stories

Advanced Honors English I

Literature: Be sure to study the following literary terms with special emphasis. Each of these terms is discussed in depth in your book, and we took notes on them in class.

- Plot
- Character
- Irony & Ambiguity
- Point of View
- Theme
- Symbolism & Allegory

Literary Terms: Below is a list of all the terms (including the ones above) that we have discussed in relation to the stories we read. Be able to identify and define these terms. Also, be able to apply these terms to the stories you've read.

- Plot
 - exposition
 - conflict
 - rising action
 - complication
 - climax
 - falling action
 - resolution
 - denouement
- Chronology
 - flashback
 - flash-forward
- Conflict
 - External
 - human v. human
 - human v. nature
 - Internal
 - human v. self
- Foreshadowing
- Suspense
- Surprise ending
- Characterization
 - Direct
 - Indirect
- Characters
 - flat and round
 - static and dynamic
- Satire
- Tone
 - diction
- Setting
 - imagery (images)
- Atmosphere
 - Mood
- Ambiguity
- Irony
 - verbal
 - situational
 - dramatic
- Point of View
 - First Person
 - Omniscient
 - Third Person Limited
- Unreliable Narrator
- Theme
 - Subject
- Symbol
- Allusion